

Do not waste it. Go at once to Revolving Sign, Near Post Office.

259 N. Main St., Decatur, Ill.

Special Attention given to work in the country.

P. PERL.

—AND—

Funeral Director,

140, 142, 144, 146 South Main St.

TELEPHONE 53.

Varney's Hotel.

MAHON, ILLINOIS.

Thoroughly renovated and refurnished is now open to the traveling public, with assurance first class accommodations at all times.

Respectfully
A. H. VANNEY,
Marion, Ill.

[illegible]

over eighty speakers made addresses. In some cities demonstrations and speeches were made both in the afternoon mond—Cincinnati, 8; Virginia, 3.

134 East Main Street.

THE PUBLIC BENEFACITOR!

Among you is the verdict of all.

The Brilliant Success that Greeted the Fall Opening of the Great New York Fire Store.

Carter's Block, West Side of Old Square,

Proves that people do appreciate low prices, and good goods. Never before in the history of Decatur have people been offered such inducements as are now being offered by the

Great New York Fire Store,

Carter's Block, West Side Old Square.

These are the Prices that Tell the Tale.

500 Cassimere Suits, Heavy Weights, in sack or frock, worth $10 a suit, ordered sold by the insurance company for $4.00 a suit.

Great New York Fire Store,

Carter's Block, West Side Old Square.

300 All Wool heavy weight Cassimere Suits, worth $12.50 a suit, ordered sold by the insurance company for $4.25 a suit.

Great New York Fire Store,

Carter's Block, West Side Old Square.

400 Fine English and French Worsted Suits, worth $16.50 to $22, ordered sold by the insurance company for $9 to $12.50 a suit.
150 Four-button Cutaway Suits, (Satin lined), worth $28.50 a suit, ordered sold by the insurance company for $9.50. This is a rare chance to get a nobly suit for almost nothing.

Great New York Fire Store,

Carter's Block, West Side Old Square.

1000 Pair Cassimere Pants at $1, worth $2.50.
500 Pair Worsted Pants at $1 to $1.25 a pair, worth $3.50 and $4.
300 Pair English Worsted and Fine Cloth Pants at $3, worth 6.
5000 Overcoats are stocked on our counters.
1000 Chinilla Overcoats, in black, blue and brown, worth $6.50 to $8 each, ordered sold by the insurance company at $1.25 each.
500 Fine Kersey Melton and Plain Beaver Overcoats, worth $12.50 to $18 each, ordered sold by the insurance company at $5.50 each.
1000 Ulsters and Ulsterettes, some lined in cassimere and some not lined, all long cut, suitable for hard knocks, worth from $12 to $16.50, ordered sold by the insurance company for $4.25.
300 Fall Overcoats in English Worsted and Fine Dobbies, worth from $8 to $25, ordered sold by the insurance company at $7.50.
Boys' Suits from $1.50 up.
Boys' Pants at 50 cts., worth $1.25.
Overalls and Waists at 25 cts.
Heavy Undershirts and Drawers at 25 cts.
Suspenders 5 cts a pair.
All Wool Blue Flannel Shirts at 75 cts, worth $2.25.
Men's Fine Fur hats at $1, worth $2.75.
Men's Fine Wool hats at 35 cts, worth $1.25.
Boys' Hats, 1000 at 25 cts each, worth 75c and $1.
It is impossible to enumerate everything. Come and see for yourself, it will pay you a big dividend on time invested.

Great New York Fire Store

Carter's Block, West Side Old Square.

THE REVIEW

JACK & WIFE, Proprietors,
East Main street, Decatur, Illinois

DAILY.
Delivered by carrier or by mail, per week, $.40
Three months in advance, 1.20
Six months in advance, 2.40
Specimen numbers sent free on application.

WEEKLY.
By mail (in advance) one year, $1.00
(if not paid in advance, per year, 1.50)
Specimen numbers sent free on application.

A BANDIT'S REVENGE.

The Mexican Town of Salinas Attacked and Plundered by a Band of Desperadoes.

Under the Leadership of the Notorious El Coyote, a Score of Citizens Are Massacred.

A Noble Resistance Made, but the Bandit Escapes, Leaving Behind Ten Dead Companions.

ORIGIN OF THE AFFAIR.

MONTREY, Mex., Oct. 4.—The town of Salinas, on the line of the Mexican National Railway, was visited Thursday afternoon by a band of armed robbers, who attacked the Municipal Hall, killed Alcade Jose M. Santos, Chief of Police Rodriguez, and about twenty others. Only last Monday night El Coyote (the wolf), a celebrated bandit, made his escape from jail at New Laredo, on the Rio Grande. It is believed he bribed his jailers to allow him to escape. He immediately fled to the mountains, and set about gathering his old band of outlaws together. His prestige among the bravados is almost supreme, and even the respectable classes regard him as a superior being and fear and admire him. He had solemnly sworn to take the life of Alcade Santos for the part the latter took in the case of the train robbery, in which Pablo Quintana, the Mayor of New Laredo, was also implicated and afterward impeached. It is now known that El Coyote, on escaping, went direct to Salinas, some sixty miles distant in the Sierra Madre mountains. Here he recruited about twenty desperate characters from the silver mines, and, pushing onward to Maculilla, another mining town skirting the mountain, picked up a dozen more recruits. The knowledge of his arrival spread with such rapidity through the distant mountain villages that it is evident that he had sent word of his intended coming. Some twenty miles from Salinas El Coyote marshaled his band of eighty men, and from that point they struggled into Salinas when the Alcade and the municipal officers had returned from their daily siesta. A small band of idle men was noticed loitering about the plaza in the neighborhood of the prefecture. The appearance of a mounted squad with El Coyote at their head was the signal for the attack. Rodriguez, the Chief of Police, with half a dozen assistants, rushed to the prefecture and closed the doors on the excited mob.

The fusillade continued until dark, when the doors were broken open and El Coyote appeared dragging the lifeless body of the Alcade Santos, while another bandit threw Rodriguez's body into the midst of the crowd. All the stores in the city were closed at the outbreak and the doors barred. The exact number killed and wounded is not known, for the reason that the bandits carried their dead and wounded away with them. The citizens claim to have counted ten dead bandits on the street as a result of a terrible fire from the windows of the prefecture with repeating rifles. Five policemen were mortally wounded, and two are since reported dead.

The municipal buildings were sacked and everything of value was carried away. A few shops were also gutted. No efforts were made by the citizens to arrest the bandits. El Coyote hanged his men in the plaza after the attack, stating that he would now go forth to avenge the wrongs he had suffered, and declared that he would kill the authorities at Palo Blanco and Bustamante and then seek the mountains.

Toward midnight, after indulging in the most dissipated orgies, El Coyote and his men took their dead and started westward in the direction of Abasco. Sanguinary and sudden attacks are expected to occur within a day or two at several points. The federal authorities are about to send troops.

ENDED A DISGRACEFUL LIFE.

Daniel Ort Falls to Kill His Former Mistress, But Shoots Himself Dead.

New York, Oct. 4.—Daniel Ort ran into a low dive on Chatham Square early last evening and demanded money of Emma Storch, one of the waiters. The woman refused, and Ort slapped her in the face. She turned to defend herself, when he put a revolver to her head and fired. The powder burned the girl's face, but the ball missed her and she fell in a faint. Ort gave a wild scream of joy as he imagined he had killed the girl, and placing the still smoking revolver to his head laughed and fired. His brains were scattered over tables, chairs and the sawdust-covered floor as he fell dead. Emma Storch was taken to the police station, where she told her story. Ort was a handsome young Hollander of good family. Some time ago he met Emma and they agreed to live together. Before long Ort took to excessive drinking, quit work and lived on the wages earned by the girl. She left him a few days ago and returned to her old place as a waiter in the dives. Last evening she gave Ort seven dollars, but refused to live with him again. He left, but returned in an hour, when the attempted murder and suicide occurred. Ort's family are diamond merchants in Amsterdam, Holland. He was thirty-one years old.

Driven Crazy by Loss of Money.

ENR, Pa., Oct. 4.—Leo Schrock and wife and John Plicks had been deposited in the Erie County Savings Bank. When the bank suspended the loss of their money drove them insane. Thinking afterward that they were committing a great sin they inflicted self-flagellation. Yesterday two officers saw the man and his wife digging a grave in the back yard. The house was entered, and it was found that the people intended to enact the death of Christ, to be followed by the killing of their children, to represent Herod's slaughter of the innocents. All were arrested.

Four More Deaths.

ASHLAND, Wis., Oct. 4.—Four more of the men who were injured by the construction train on the Omaha Road going into a washout near Bayfield, Wis., Thursday, have died of their wounds. They were J. McCoy, conductor, of Elroy; J. A. Robinson, engineer, of Altoon; S. Morris, fireman, and M. McCarthy. It is believed that three more will die from septic poisoning. Coffins were ordered from St. Paul yesterday morning, which indicates that the number of victims is even greater.

The Death Penalty.

WOODSTOCK, Ill., Oct. 4.—The jury in the case of James Dacey, the murderer of Alderman Gaylor, of Chicago, have declared him guilty of murder and fixed the penalty at death. The sentence has not yet been pronounced by the court.

GORDON TAKES ACTION.

The Hero of Khartoum Scores Another Victory Over the Forces of the False Prophet.

Berber Bombarded and Recaptured—America's Mission in China Denied.

Many Lives Lost and Seventy-Nine Vessels Sunk in a Terrible Hurricane in Iceland.

OTHER FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Sir Evelyn Baring has sent a dispatch to the Government stating that General Gordon, after having bombarded Berber for some time, effected his entry into the place and recaptured it. The rebels and hostile inhabitants fled when the bombardment ceased.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The story of Berber will enable Colonel Kitchener to reach General Gordon at Dongola and ascertain his wishes regarding the Nile expedition, if the settlement of the pending difficulties were dependent on Young's first expedition and as to the necessity of the expedition going to Khartoum. The conference may result in the abandonment of the Nile expedition.

The Mukir of Dongola sends a dispatch stating that a reliable messenger brought word to him that he saw General Gordon with four steamers arrive at Sherdy. Finding the place deserted, Gordon mailed to a tree a proclamation offering pardon to the people. After several trees, General Gordon started for Berber. On the day after his arrival the general placed two steamers in the middle of the river and opened a bombardment on the town. The bombardment lasted until late in the afternoon. General Gordon afterward proceeded in the direction of Djizah. It is rumored that Mohammed Elkili, who was El Mukir's Ameer at Berber, was killed during the bombardment. Other reports state that he escaped. He had all the treasure in the city, and was subsequently taken to Khartoum.

CAIRO, Oct. 4.—Brigadier-General Grihalpe of the Egyptian Army, has been appointed to the command of Assuan and the line of communications. The Khedive and Lord Northcliffe informed the Egyptian Army that they will withdraw from the treaty made by Admiral Hewitt unless Ras-salukh loyally fulfills his propositions. A Cabinet Council has been suddenly summoned for Thursday to reconsider the position taken in Egyptian affairs. It is believed that there is a possibility of a settlement of the Egyptian question. The report of the cholera for the past twenty-four hours gave a total of 254 fresh cases, and 174 deaths, against 321 fresh cases and 194 deaths for the preceding twenty-four hours. The reports today include 80 cases and 50 deaths at Naples, and 24 cases and 45 deaths in Genoa.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—There were three new cases of cholera and two deaths in the Province of Albion yesterday. No fresh cases, but one death, is reported from the Province of Lenna.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—There were eight deaths from cholera in Southern France during the past twenty-four hours.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Intelligence has just been received of a terrible disaster in the Province of Lenna. The accounts thus far received show the fifth and last vessel, and sixty sailing boats were lost and thirty-two other vessels disabled. The most appalling feature of the hurricane was the loss of life. The exact number of those who perished has not yet been ascertained, but it is known to be very great.

SINGAPORE, Oct. 4.—Viceroy Hugh Klen has sent 15,000 men to reinforce the Chinese troops now holding Ketching and Tannau.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—It is semi-officially announced that America may have offered to send a mediator between France and Russia, but France has not asked her to act in that capacity.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Inquiry at the Department of State yesterday failed to elicit either a confirmation or denial of the dispatch to the London Times which stated that John Russell Young had arrived at Tien-Tsin, and, acting under instructions from Washington, had informed Li Hung Chang that the French Government had requested the mediation of the United States Government.

It has been learned, however, that Mr. Young recently visited the American Consulate in China, and that within a few days he has been at Tien-Tsin, which is only about seventy miles distant from Peking. While there he had an audience with Li Hung Chang and was understood to convey any request on the part of France for mediation.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A committee of the United States Alliance, a temperance organization, has adopted a resolution congratulating New York and the State of Maine for having in the recent election secured such a majority for the measure incorporating into the State Constitution the prohibition amendment. They say that by reason of this vote they anticipate great results to the west.

Tennyson's new work consists of a single long dramatic poem, the subject being "Becket."

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Captain Burton, the African traveler, writes to the Academy that he feels depressed at the feeling of the English press over the gallant but unfortunate Greely expedition. He says the silly charge of cannibalism seems to have provoked an outburst. He says that in El Islam, religion of common sense, there is no obloquy for these unfortunate men, but that civilization makes us such pitiless people that we dare not venture everything for noble need, the sooner we abdicate in favor of less advanced people the better.

VIENNA, Oct. 4.—Hans Makart, the artist, died yesterday from inflammation of the brain.

More Suspicious Fires at Cleveland.
CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 4.—The fire-bugs have begun work again. Yesterday afternoon at 2:40 o'clock fire broke out in a shed in the rear of that part of the Leader Building occupied by Keppeler's cigar store. Last evening fire was started on the fourth floor of the building proper. Both fires were extinguished with little loss.

If your hair is turning gray, don't use the poisonous dyes which burn out its life and produce many diseases of the scalp. Ape's Hair Vigor is positively harmless, and will restore the natural color of the hair, stimulate its growth, and bring back its youthful gloss and beauty. d&w
New styles in hair go on at Thayer's, 128 East Main street. s20w

THE RECORD BROKEN.

Commodore Kittson's Fastest Pacer Johnston Makes the 1900 Annual Record of 2:06 1-4 at the Chicago Driving Park.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The greatest effort of the racing season, of 1894 took place at the Chicago Driving Park yesterday afternoon, and only three hundred people witnessed the performance. Commodore Kittson's fast pacer Johnston paced a mile to sulky in the unprecedented time of 2:06 1-4, again placing the racing record below that of Maud S. in the shade. The day was perfect for speed. Warm, but not close, and the atmosphere dry; the track smooth, with just enough elasticity in it to help the horses and not drag the sulky wheels, everything was favorable toward the accomplishment of the task set for the long-gaited gelding.

Splendidly driven Johnston, a warning-up heat in 2:18. This one seemed to hammer up the flyer. When he again appeared on the track the stop-watches came out and their owners sought positions opposite the wire. Johnny Campbell also appeared on the track behind Johnston. President Hering then announced from the judges' stand that Johnston was to pace a mile against his record of 2:10 and that Richmond would also go to beat his record of 2:12 1-2. The horses were to start about fifty feet apart, Johnston leading. At the first attempt Splint needed for the work. Campbell also needed. Away went the two fastest pacers on the turf. Johnston was going for all he was worth, with his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping gait. The sulky little blaze-faced gelding followed close behind, with his rapid, springy movement. Johnston passed the first quarter in thirty-two seconds. Rounding out the straight road of the back stretch, Johnston traveled even faster than he had made his first quarter, always keeping up the heavy lone stride, but moving a little faster. Richmond had dropped seventy yards to the rear, and went off his feet half-way down to the half-mile pole. As Johnston passed the half-mile pole, he again showed his long, sweeping g